ALL LIVES MATTER FORUM

Open to the Public

This discussion forum will:

- Provide a community platform for honest and open dialogue aimed at encouraging civic engagement
- Address the challenges of overcoming social injustices
- Create strategies to reduce and eliminate community crime
- Develop resolution options to deal with police aggression
- Create community "think tanks" whose goals are to specifically address youth education and youth crime diversion

This public, open discussion - where ideas and participation are welcomed - promises to be educational, engaging, and productive. Join us by investing your time and ideas.

Location: Port St. Lucie Civic Center
